1. Opening Prayer

- a. Heavenly Father, as we embark on this month of March, dedicated to the joy of reading, we thank you for the gift of words and stories that open our minds and hearts to new worlds. Guide us as we explore different authors and genres, may our curiosity be sparked, and our imaginations soar. Help us to find the power of learning through literature, to grow in empathy and understanding, and to cherish the beauty of language. May this month be a time of enriching our lives with the magic of reading. Amen

2. Pastor/Principal Reports/Comments – Mrs Scaramucci

- a. Lunch Updates The Christian Service door will not be locked. Lunch will be moved to the other side of the building. Some ideas: Outside the gym (concession tables) for 8th and 4th graders. It is possible we may have lunch in a certain part of the gym. Next year: try not to have PE during lunch time so the gym can be used for lunch.
- b. Admission Updates – There is a waitlist for 4 yr old preschool, 1st grade, and 5th grade. Ruth and Jackie are going to St. Linus next Tuesday (3/10) for potential students. There have been many students shadowing lately. Kindergarten is at 18 for next year.
- c. Security Updates Grant Money: must be used for security. We are looking at an electronic key fob system. We are getting two quotes for this system. Intruder drill went well. Officer Stephanie is looking for ways we can improve with these drills.

The cap is 72 and we are currently at 50. Looking to have something more consistent for the Mother-Son Event in the future. Possibly looking at roller skating and inviting the parish as well for better attendance. Grandparents Day is April 15. Field Day is in June. Teacher Appreciation Week is the week April 27.
- b. Education Commission Updates – Nicole Egg Hunt is coming up. This is a great way to have the school and parish come together. There was discussion on having a preschool/whole school flyer or table at this event due to many preschool aged kids being in attendance. Is it possible to get the emails of preschool aged families from this event? Religious Ed: Potentially doing Shadow Stations. If it happens it will be March 20.
